BY-LAWS.
COMMITTEES.
LIST OF MEMBERS.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.—Membership.

SEC. 1. Any person of lawful age may be elected a member of the association, by ballot, at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors by a majority vote of those present and voting, the name of such person having been proposed in writing to the Board by two members of the Society at least thirty days prior to such meeting.

SEC. 2. Persons who shall have attained an eminent distinction in Science, Literature or the Arts may be elected honorary members, by ballot, at the annual meeting, by a majority vote of the members present and voting, upon nomination by the Board of Directors.

SEC. 3. Any member may become a life member and be exempt from the payment of annual dues, by paying the sum of fifty dollars, which shall be added to the invested funds of the Society.

ARTICLE II.—Officers and Directors.

SEC. 1. The officers of this Society shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer and a Board of thirteen Directors, this number being the same as the original company of Germantown settlers, who shall together constitute a board of managers. They shall be elected at the annual meeting, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. The President, the Secretary, Assistant Secretary and the Treasurer shall be elected to hold office for one year, or in case of a failure to elect, until a successor in their respective office shall be elected. At the first annual meeting after the adoption of these By-laws, one Vice-President and five Directors shall be elected to serve for three years, one Vice-President and four Directors for two years, and one Vice-President and four Directors for one year, and at each succeeding annual meeting there shall be chosen one Vice-President and four or five Directors, as may be necessary to complete the original number.

ARTICLE III.—Duties of Officers.

SEC. 1. The President, or in his absence, the Senior Vice-President, who shall be present, shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Directors.

The President shall appoint a Finance Committee consisting of five members of which Committee he shall be ex-officio Chairman. As soon as may be after the annual meeting he shall also appoint, with the approval of the Directors, such Committees as may be necessary to carry out the objects of the Society. The Chairman of every standing Committee shall be chosen from the Board of Directors.

SEC. 2. The Secretary and Assistant Secretary shall keep a true record of the doings of the Society and Board of Directors and a list of all members of the Society with the date of admission. They shall conduct the correspondence of the Society and keep a file of all letters received and a copy of all letters sent.

SEC. 3. The Treasurer shall collect all dues, and receive and pay out all money belonging to the Society under the direction of the Finance Committee, without whose order no money shall be invested or paid from the treasury. He shall report at the annual meeting in detail the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year, and shall keep the books always open to the inspection of any member. He shall keep a list of the members of the Society, with date of all payments made as fees for membership.

SEC. 4. The Officers and Directors shall meet together for the transaction of all business, and seven members of the body so constituted shall be a quorum. They may, in case of any vacancy upon the Board or in any one of the offices of the Society, elect by ballot, a member of the Society to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting.

SEC. 5. The Finance Committee shall examine, and, if found to be correct, shall approve all bills against the Society, and shall be entrusted with the care and investment of its permanent funds.

ARTICLE IV.—Meetings.

SEC. 1. There shall be an annual meeting held on the 25th day of October of each and every year,—this date having been selected as commemorative of the first settlement of Germantown,—except when that date shall fall upon Sunday, in which case the annual meeting shall be held the following Monday.

SEC. 2. Other meetings may be held at any time or place designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V.—Dues.

SEC. 1. An annual assessment of two ($2.00) dollars shall be paid by every member within thirty days from the date of the annual meeting.

SEC. 2. No member who shall be in arrears for one year shall be entitled to vote or hold any office; and any member so in arrears, who shall refuse or neglect to pay his assessment for six months, after being notified thereof by the Treasurer, shall be reported by him to the Directors for action.

ARTICLE VI.—Dissolution.

In event of the formal dissolution of this organization, all the property held, owned and controlled by it, shall be forever vested in The Historical Society of Pennsylvania.
